Letter from the Editor

Dear Islanders,

Whether you're back home after a vacation, getting ready with back-to-school preps or settling back into your usual routine, we are sure that everyone's been hustling and bustling, as we usher in September, so welcome back to all our islanders!

The Kingdom of Bahrain has seen a slow and steady decline in COVID-19 cases, with hope and perseverance we can continue for our own individual safety and the community's. That being said, we have a number of suitable events and offers in this issue, so make sure to find out what they are on page 3.

We are also excited after finding out about an amazing new app that can cater to all your pet needs. From grooming, to walking to boarding, this app is a must for your fur babies, check out page 2 for the details.

We have also recently updated the Amwaj Security details for faster and easier contact. If you haven't done so yet, make sure to save it and update our contact details.

We would like to remind our dear residents to follow the AIA Instagram page - @amwajassociation and the Amwaj Islands Instagram @amwaj_islands for up-to-date information as it becomes available.

Sincerely,

The Amwaj Team

The henlo App

Your one-stop shop solution for all your pet needs

henlo is the all-in-one super app for your pet, where pet owners are able to select from a list of services that take care of all of your pet needs. henlo provides services such as pet boarding, dog walking and instant contact to a list of 5-star approved carers to choose from. Pet owners have the chance to chat with the carer of their choice and even meet with them, to make sure that they're the perfect fit for your pet. As part of the pet care services, you get instant updates like 'your dog just pooped!', making sure you never miss a moment away from your fur baby.

The app also provides you with grooming and veterinary services which can be booked with your favourite groomer or veterinary clinic. henlo's app is directly synced to the service provider's calendar so you can book your pet a slot without having to call them, and your pet's details will be sent to the groomer/vet. All you need to do is show up!

"Our pets are not just our pets, but really; they're members of the family and we get it."

That is the thought Louay Malas, owner and creator of henlo, had when he started the app, "the idea came to me around July 2018 when my wife and I got our first dog. We started having a pretty hard time travelling together, because we simply weren't comfortable leaving our dog at a kennel. The problem with kennels is that they're expensive, pets are left in cages, and they never really get their well needed attention all the time.”

Until one day, a neighbor offered to watch their dog saying she had the time, space and would do it for a much lower price.

“I still remember the day like it was yesterday, when I was walking through the office corridors and suddenly the thought hit me; what if I can provide all pet owners with this solution? By connecting them to people who love being around pets, at the same time feel like they're never missing a moment away from them,” continued Louay. That is where the idea of henlo was born.

Every pet is individually unique, when left with kennels, it is not only detrimental to their well-being but also an expensive solution. With henlo, your pets are with a 5-star approved Carer, in their home getting all the attention they need ensuring they have what they are already used to, rather than being put in a completely new environment. “What is really cool is that pet owners are able to chat with their Carers at all times, getting updates on their fur baby and even get pet reports at the end of the services,” said Louay. This gives the pet owner peace of mind as they never feel like they're away from their pet.

If you are a pet owner and are interested in the henlo app services, simply head towards the App store search for and download ‘henlo’, sign up and you're ready to go.

To become a henlo carer, simply download the ‘henlo Carer’ app – the team will review and verify your account and once approved, you can start earning to take care of pets!

henlo services are available throughout the Kingdom of Bahrain and have also just recently launched in Dubai, ensuring as many pets as possible can benefit from the best 5-star services for your fur babies.

henlo are available on all social media platforms, emails and even WhatsApp to help answer any questions and support in any way; from how the app works to help connecting to a henlo Carer.
